In our life we all meet people who are little nervous, confused or who have lost hope in some or the other way. If you consider yourself as a true friend, you can help your dear ones by motivating them with your kind words. This can surely make a difference in their life.

9 Phrases for motivation

So here are some phrases that you can use to motivate your dear ones.

1. Give it a try: when someone is doing something for the first time but is nervous

Example- Radhika, give it a try, may be you will get it.

Example- Don't lose hope just give it a try.

2. It's worth a shot: when something is worth trying

Example- Why don't you think about it? It's really worth a shot.

Example- Try it once, trust me it's worth a shot.

3. There you go: When someone is doing well, but you encourage them to do it in a better way.

Example- Don't be nervous Riya, there you go, and you are really doing a great job.

Example- There you go Mahesh, don't give up.

4. There you go again: when a person is doing a wrong thing again

Example- I had told you that you shouldn't talk to him but there you go again.

Example- There you go again with that bad habit.

5. Keep up the good work: to keep someone motivated.

Example- You are scoring excellent marks in exams, keep up the good work.
