

How to talk about the weather?

Created: Thursday, 29 January 2015 11:17 | Published: Sunday, 08 February 2015 07:08 | Written by Chander Madan | Print

You are planning to go out for a vacation since you need a break from your daily routine. You decide to visit your friend abroad. The thought of meeting him again makes you happy. Your flight has just landed and you still need to complete an hour of the train journey to reach your destination. New place, new people and of course a new language. But there are some people around you who are speaking in English. You are bored and want to kill your time. Therefore, you decide to start a conversation with the person sitting beside you, using your English speaking skills.

English speakers generally love to talk about the weather. It is a best way of breaking the ice and starting a conversation. Here you can make the best use of your fluent English.

Situation: You are in a train, travelling to a new place, since you are bored you start a conversation with the person sitting next to you.

You: - Good morning! I am Mr. Pawan.

Mr Peter: - Morning. Oh! I see. How was your journey so far?

You: - Quite good. Thanks, how are you?

Mr Peter: - I am good, apart from all this rain! It's chucking down again!

You: - Yes, it's unpleasant, isn't it? And it is very cold!

Mr Peter: - The weather forecast said it will brighten up after lunch.

You: - They always say that! Still, I can't complain, it's a lot better than back home.

Mr Peter: - Really? Where are you from?

You: - I am from India.

Mr Peter: - What's the weather like in India now?

You: - It's so hot out there!

Mr Peter: - Right! So this must be like winter for you!

You: - Right! And I do like the snow sometimes.

Mr Peter: What kind of seasons do you experience over there?

You: We generally experience three seasons- summer, monsoon and winter.

Mr Peter: And how long do these seasons last for?

You: Summer starts from the mid - March and lasts till Mid-June which is three months. Every season continues for same duration.

Mr Peter: Wow! That's pretty fair. You get to experience every season for at least three months.

You: Yes.

Mr Peter: Okay young man, I am getting down at the next station. It was nice talking to you.

You: Yes, sir. My pleasure. Bye.

The above conversation shows how to talk about the weather. Your English language skills have to be at par with the place you are travelling. Improve your spoken English skills before travelling out of your country so that you don't get stuck at any point. Happy Journey!

About Eagetutor:

eAgeTutor.com is a premier online English learning institute. eAge's world class faculty and ace communication experts, from around the globe, help you to improve in an all-round manner. Assignments and tasks based on a well-researched content developed by subject matter and industry experts can certainly fetch the most desired results for improving spoken English skills. In this age of effective and advance communication technology, online spoken English programs are the most effective and convenient way to learn English.

For further information on our online English speaking courses or to experience the wonders of the virtual classroom, fix a demonstration session with our tutor.

-By Chander Madan

Related Topics:

1. How to ask for directions and find your way in a foreign country?
2. Conversation at the Airport Check-in
3. How to learn English Online?
4. How to describe your traveling experience by flight?
5. How to talk about local customs and folklore?

Category: Spoken English / Beginner's English

Joomla SEF URLs by Artio