It's the age of the internet and social media. With a click on your mobile you can get all the information, news, and latest trends. All you have to do is to keep yourself activated on social platforms like Facebook, YouTube, Twitter, etc. The world has become social. The latest topics which are discussed at any social gathering are the ones that are trending on the internet.

For instance, with the recent World Cup, the advertisement Mauka Mauka, which was made for the match between India-Pakistan, became an instant talk of the town. And then, the response video before any match was made back to back that created hype for team India.

You are keen to share your views and opinions on these amazing ads with your friends, but none of your friend is available. Therefore, you decide to share it with your colleague. But you think for a moment and ask yourself, will I be able to speak in English confidently? Don't worry. Here is a sample conversation.

Sample Conversation

Discussions are a good way to improve your English communication skills. Here's a small conversation example.

Karthik – Hi, Good morning Shekar.

Shekar – Good morning. How are you?

Karthik – I am good. What about you?

Shekar – Thanks, I am doing fine. By the way, did you watch yesterday's match between India and Pakistan?

Karthik – Yes, obviously. How can anyone miss the World Cup match, that too between these two teams? It was a fantastic match.

Shekar – Indeed, it was.

Karthik – Umesh's double-strike was the turning point, wasn't it?

Shekar – Yeah.

Karthik – Hey, did you see the Mauka Mauka ad that was rolling out all over the media for the past few days?

Shekar – Which one? Pakistan vs. India?

Karthik – No. It's for the upcoming match between Sri Lanka and India.

Shekar – Oh. Yes. The situation of the India-South Africa World Cup match is hyped. And everyone is anticipating a good fight between the two. This created the response ad, which depicted the victory of India in World Cups despite being defeated by South Africa.

Karthik – Great. It was an epic response video I have ever seen.

Shekar – I am just loving these ads. Cool, then see you soon. I have a meeting at 10.30am. Catch you up during lunch and let's take the discussion further.

Karthik – Ok. See ya. Good luck.
