

Vocabulary to be used when describing your favorite movie

Created: Friday, 22 July 2016 11:51 | Published: Monday, 25 July 2016 16:40 | Written by Chandar Madan | Print

Films or movie are popular all over the world. We often watch movies for entertainment. Through movies we can learn many things, for one communication. It helps you to express and hence, improve our communication. Watching English movies can improve your communication as you can learn new words and improve your vocabulary. It is also a great topic to start a new conversation. We all love watching movies, but what if you could describe it to your friend and convince him/her to watch the movie as well. Wouldn't that be great?

You and your friend are sitting in a café and drinking coffee. Soon, the conversation moves to recent movies and you start to discuss a movie you watched over the weekend. Let's see a sample conversation.

Conversation between Lisa and Ray

Ray: Hey Lisa, have you seen the movie Bahubali?

Lisa: No, but I have heard a lot about that movie.

Ray: It is one the greatest movie in Indian Cinema.

Lisa: Wow that sounds great. Can you describe me about the movie?

Ray: It is a Tollywood (directed in Telugu) movie which is directed by S. S. Rajamouli.

Lisa: What kind of movie is it?

Ray: It is an epic (long, historical drama) and has a lot of action (fights) and romance (love).

Lisa: That's interesting. What about the cast (everyone who acted in the movie) and crew of the film?

Ray: The lead actors (main actors) were Prabhas, Tamannaah, Satya Raj, Rana Daggubati and the supporting actors (not main roles) were Anushka Shetty, Rohini and special appearance (for a short time) were Nora Fatehi, Sneha Upaday.

Lisa: How did you know about that movie?

Ray: I saw the trailer (short extract of the film) and was impressed by it.

Lisa: And who is the music director (person who composes the songs and background score)?

Ray: M. M. Keeravani.

Lisa: That sounds really great. I will watch that movie as soon as possible.

Ray: Yeah you should watch it. It's really a great movie. You know the world wide box office collection of the movie was Rs.586.45Cr. It's my favorite movie.

Lisa: Okay, do you have that movie with you?

Ray: Yeah, I will give it you.

Lisa: Thank you.

Conclusion

You can use many adjectives when describing your favorite movie like wonderful, beautiful, marvelous, epic, romantic, comedy, action and many more. How confident you are in your communication will have a deep impact on how serious you will be taken. Proper vocabulary and tone of communication is of lot of importance when describing anything. To improve your English, join online spoken English class and get the confidence to speak in English fluently.

About Eagetutor:

eAgeTutor.com is the premier online tutoring provider. eAge's world-class faculty and ace communication experts from around the globe help you to improve English in an all-round manner. Assignments and tasks based on a well-researched content developed by subject matter and industry experts can certainly fetch the most desired results for improving spoken English skills. Overcoming limitations is just a click of mouse away in this age of effective and advance communication technology. For further information on online English speaking course or to experience the wonders of virtual classroom fix a demonstration session with our tutor. Please visit www.eagetutor.com.

- By Chander Madan

Related topics:

1. How to recommend your friend on places to visit in the city?
2. How to Make a Fluent First Impression in English?
3. How to speak to a customer care representative regarding a dispute in electricity bill?
4. How to talk about a viral video you saw recently?
5. How to follow table manners?

Category: Spoken English / English Grammar

Joomla SEF URLs by Artio