Vocabulary to be used when describing your native place

Think of native place and good memories flock our mind. Usually, when we return from our native place, we tend to discuss with our friends and family about its awesomeness. Such discussions can be interesting only if you are able to describe in a narrative manner. To make it more interesting and explanatory, you can make use of the following words to impress your listeners in the discussion.

Vocabulary for describing native place:-

1. Picturesque: a place which is very beautiful, unique and unusual

When you explain the natural beauty of mountains, seashore and river at your native place, usage of this word will make your communication more colorful.

Example: What a picturesque view that seashore has! Even I didn't flicker my eyes for a second.

2. Attractive: something very pleasing to the eye

This term is a part of our communication on a day-to-day basis. This term is generally used when we feel pleasant and nice, after observing the things which catch our attention.

Example: The colorful flowers in our backyard were really attractive.

3. Ancient:a place having a long history

The word is used to describe historical and monumental places having a long history of many years back.
