

9 words used to describe that you spend too much

Created: Saturday, 08 July 2017 17:24 | Published: Sunday, 20 August 2017 17:06 | Written by Shailja Varma | Print

Is your friend too extravagant? Did you understand the meaning of extravagant? No, right. It means a person who spends his/her money in a wasteful or careless way. There are many other words which can be used to describe a person who spends way too much money.

9 words used to describe that you spend too much are:

1. To splash out: to spend money on things which are not actually needed.

Example- She is the one who always splashes out and then says that she does not have enough money.

Example- He tries his best not to splash out so that he can save money for future needs.

2. To chip in- to give some money to help pay for something.

Example- Can you please chip in?

Example- Nowadays many people come to our house to chip in & contribute for NGOs.

3. To squander- to spent wastefully

Example- She is the one who always squanders and then complaints that she does not have enough clothes to wear.

Example- We should teach our children the importance and value of money so that they do not squander in future.

4. To burn a hole in one's pocket- when someone can't keep from spending whatever money they have.

Example- She can't save her money she just has to burn a hole in her pocket always.

Example- There are very less people who burn a hole in their pocket to fulfil other's needs.

5. To shell out- to spend a certain amount of money for something.

Example- I am not going to shell out much money for that dress.

Example- He tries his best not to shell out much because he knows how difficult it is to earn that much money.

6. To buy for a song- to buy something at a cheap price.

Example- I bought those jackets at the price of a song.

Example- She is very greedy for money. She always buys for a song.

7. To splurge on- to spend extravagantly

Example- Ram always splurges on because he is not the one who earns money in his house.

Example- She always get scolding from her mom because she splurges on.

8. To foot the bill- to pay for a bill

Example- Dude don't worry, I will foot the bill this time.

Example- If you don't mind can you please foot the bill this time, as I forgot to bring my purse.

9. To go dutch- when both the partners pay the bill instead one paying it completely

Example- In a relationship, they should go dutch to avoid fights.

Example- One of the reason for break ups nowadays is because the couples do not go dutch.

We hope you liked our blog. , this can surely increase your vocabulary and English.

About Eagetutor:

eAgeTutor.com is the premier online tutoring provider. eAge's world-class faculty and ace communication experts from around the globe help you to improve English in an all-round manner. Assignments and tasks based on a well-researched content developed by subject matter and industry experts can certainly fetch the most desired results for improving spoken English skills. Overcoming limitations is just a click of mouse away in this age of effective and advance communication technology. For further information on online English speaking course or to experience the wonders of virtual classroom fix a demonstration session with our tutor. Please visit www.eagetutor.com.

- By Shailja Varma

Related topics:

1. Holiday idioms you must know
2. Learn these spooky Halloween idioms- Part one
3. Learn these spooky Halloween idioms- Part two
4. Learn phrases to describe the character of a person
5. Crazy Idioms you need to know

Category: Spoken English / Idioms and Phrases

Joomla SEF URLs by Artio