

yourself or ask someone else to remember for you. Examples of using it in a sentence:

"I can't remember this person's name."

"Can you remember what colour were her shoes?"

"I wish I could remember the name of this song."

Remind:

This is when something, or someone makes you remember something. It is an act of something triggering you to remember something. Examples of using it in a sentence:

"Can you please remind me to drink 8 glasses of water today?"

"This song reminds me of my mother."

"Do I need to remind you that the report is due today?"

Memorise:

It is when you try to put some information in your memory, so that it stays there. Examples of this word in a sentence:

"I am yet to memorise my graduation day speech"

"I know of people who can memorise an entire book!"

"No matter how many times I meet her, I just can't memorize her name!"

The best way to understand this concept is by practicing. Visualize a scene, where you might need to use and practice it. Here's a little exercise for you to start with.

What do you think will fit in these sentences?

I clearly _____ the day I first met you.

You don't have to _____ me about that horrible accident.

Why can't you ever _____ to carry an umbrella?

All the best!
