What are Social Media Platforms?:

There are over thousands of social media platforms and networking sites. These social media platforms connect us with the whole world and help us interact. Some of the popular social media platforms are Facebook, Linkedin, and Twitter. You can spend time on these social media platforms for interaction, creating an online brand, and sharing content. Facebook is one of the important social media platforms that is becoming popular day by day. You can create a fan page and build your fan base here. Through facebook you can share and update your content. In facebook an user gets notification whenever a person in his friend list makes any change or updates his profile. Linkedin is another platform that helps companies or organizations to get connected with each other and stay in touch. Twitter is another social media platform that will help you interact with others, share content and create your own brand.

How to Communicate on Social Media Platforms

There are some ways that can be followed to communicate on social media platforms.

- 1. When it comes to social media platforms effective communication is extremely essential. So it is very important to speak fluently if you want to use these social media platforms. If you cannot speak effectively then it is not the right place for you. First of all it is very important for you to create a fascinating profile. If your profile is a boring one, then nobody is going to like it. So go for an interesting one. You might be using the social media networks to sell your product or services. So make your profile in such a way so that the customers get attracted easily.
- 2. The social media platforms give you an opportunity to select the people with whom you would like to talk to. So try to connect to people who would like to buy your products or services.
- 3. The most important thing on social media platforms is that you need to interact with your target audience. So start the conversation with your audience and let them know about you and your business. Also let them talk about themselves, their likes and dislikes and their interests.
- 4. You need to keep talking with the audience. Thus it indicates that you have to create a sustained relationship with the audience. So it is very important for you to communicate effectively and fluently so that you can build a strong relationship with them.
- 5. Try to stay active and try to respond to each of the friends' requests.
