

How to Write a Formal Email Regarding a Leave/ Off?

Created: Saturday, 29 June 2013 11:15 | Published: Saturday, 29 June 2013 10:59 | Written by Monika Agarwal | Print

Taking time off to rejuvenate is certainly recommended. In this fast paced life, it gets impossible for us to carry on working if our mind is fatigued. At such times, it is best to just take a breather, apply for leave and hit the road for a vacation.

Sounds stimulating, doesn't it? But before you take off, you need to go through the stringent procedure of applying for the leave and follow ups. Of course, applying for a leave will require you to write your leave application letter in simple English.

Role of Simple English

A leave application can mean a short term or a long term leave but taking permission for leave is an extremely crucial step when working in an organization. This will give your employer a chance to palm out your duties for that particular period to someone else working in your department.

Remember, it's not a casual letter and you need to use a restricted language. Be cautious in framing the sentences, keep the spellings under check and ensure you triple check before finally hitting send on your email .

Are you prepared? Well, whether or not... An example will be just perfect to give you a direction in applying for leave.

Sample of a leave letter

Subject: Application of leave for 10 days

(15th – 30th August 2013) as I am going on a family vacation.

I would like to have your approval on my leave of 10 days. All my responsibilities and the outstanding work will be taken care of by me, before I leave.

Looking forward to a positive reply at the earliest!

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,
Ramesh Iyer.
Content Manager.

Conclusion

If you've noticed, the entire email is to the point. One should always keep it that way. Avoid using complicated terms and keep the email extremely basic and productive. Write in fluent English. Hoping that this email has imparted sufficient knowledge of how to go about writing a leave application, keeping in mind the superiority of the senior you're addressing the email to.

With the growing advantages of technology, learning English has now become accessible online. No more going out for English speaking classes. Joining an English speaking course online will help you improve your English vocabulary and is an easy way to learn English in the comfort of your home/ office.

About eAgeTutor:

eAgeTutor.com is the premier online English learning institute. eAge's world class faculty and ace communication experts, from around the globe, help you to improve in an all-round manner. Assignments and tasks based on a well researched content developed by subject matter and industry experts can certainly fetch the most desired results for improving spoken English skills. In this age of effective and advance communication technology, online spoken English programs are the most effective and convenient way to learn English.

For further information on our online English speaking courses or to experience the wonders of the virtual classroom, fix a demonstration session with our tutor.

- By Monika Agarwal

Related Topics:

1. How to Respond to a Job Offer Letter?
2. How to Prepare for an Interview?
3. How to Sign Off an Email?
4. 5 Common Email Mistakes
5. How to write compelling emails in English?

Category:ROOT /Spoken English

Joomla SEF URLs by Artio