Movies, they are one of the best source of entertainment for ages. Going to watch a movie you've long awaited is always an exciting and fun experience altogether. However, what when your friend requests you to buy the tickets? Keep that frown away and let's go about how to buy a movie ticket in spotless, well- spoken English.

Example:

(At the theatre's ticket-counter)

Jack: Hey! I wanted to enquire about the show timings for Jurassic Park in 3D.

Assistant: Sir, there are three shows running. One in the afternoon and two evening shows.

Jack: Sounds good! Could you please help me out with the timings?

Assistant: 1:00 p.m., 6:00 p.m., and 9:00 p.m.

Jack: I would like to know the availability of seats in the 6:00 p.m show. Could you please assist me with that?

Assistant: Sure Sir, Just give me a moment.

Checks on his computer and says...

Assistant: Sir, there are 6 seats available in the Gold section and 12 seats available in the Platinum section. The Platinum section's tickets cost Rs. 270/- and the ones in the Gold section cost Rs. 200/-.

Jack: I think I'll go with the Platinum. Can I have 6 tickets of the Platinum section for the 6 o' clock show please?

Assistant: Sure Sir. Would you like to go in for our snack offers as well?

Jack: May be, tell me about it.

Assistant: If you pay another Rs. 50/- per ticket, you get a tub of popcorn, 1 samosa and a medium coke on every ticket.

Jack: Wow! That sounds perfect! Give me six of those snack vouchers.

Assistant: Here, you go Sir. Can I help you out with anything else?

Jack: Yes, I wanted to know about the 3D glasses. Where would I be able to get them?

Assistant: Sir, your 3D glasses will be made available to you in the theatre itself at the entrance. You need not worry about those.

Jack: Okay. Thank you.
